ROUTES INTO WORKING IN THE NHS

PRE-EMPLOYMENT PROGRAMMES

- These programmes encourage people into NHS jobs, particularly those from under-represented groups.
- You'll get work experience and gain new skills.
- Learn more about pre-employment programmes.

NHS WORKFORCE

WORK PLACEMENTS

- You'll observe staff and • discover what it's like to work in the health service.
- Find out about NHSScotland • work placements.
- For more information contact our NHSScotland Boards.

i

FURTHER/HIGHER EDUCATION

- Some NHS roles require college or university education.
- There are lots of different • programmes available. Search for further and higher education courses on My World of Work.

VOLUNTEERING

- Take part in relevant training and gain new skills and experience by volunteering with NHSScotland.
- You'll help people being cared for in lots of different Ways.
- Find out more about volunteering at Ready Scotland.

RETURNING TO PRACTICE

- Various programmes for previously registered professionals.
- Update your skills and knowledge in order to return to practice.
- To find out how you can return to the NHS, contact our NHSScotland Boards.

FURTHER INFORMATION

- www.myworldofwork.co.uk
- www.apprenticeships.scot

APPRENTICESHIPS

- Apprenticeships are open to anyone aged 16 and over, including new and existing workforce.
- Learn technical, practical and job specific skills.
- Clinical and non-clinical Modern Apprenticeships are available from SCQF levels 5 to 11. Find out more about our apprenticeships.

GRADUATE-LEVEL PROGRAMMES

- If you already have a degree, you can apply for graduate-level programmes in health and social care.
- Find out more about our graduate-level programmes.

KICKSTART SCHEME

- 6 month work placements for 16-24 year olds on universal credit.
- Fully funded for 25 hours per week and roles must be new.
- Contact your work coach for more information.
- Find out about Kickstart

- www.careers.nhs.scot
- www.youngpersonsguarantee.scot